King is the man referred to in the affidavits presented to Justice Guy as the pedler who slept at the Phelps house on the night of the murder and who subsethe night of the murder and who subsequently was seen with a large amount of money in his possession. Mr. Kohn said the tip as to the identity of that pedler was given by King's pal, O'Connell. The clue which led to O'Connell was furnished by Green, who recognized him in prison, it is said, as an initerant junkman whom he saw at West Shelby on the day of the double tragedy. Green heard O'Connell say that shortly after the murders King had more money than he was accustomed to handle at once.

TURKS CRUEL TO CAPTIVES. British Prisoners Said to Be Getting Only Bread and Water. LONDON, Aug. 11.—The Central News says that it learns on "undenjable authority" that British prisoners taken at Kut-el-Amara have been subjected to considerable hardships by the Turks. The British have been distributed in small groups in the Angora region and are badly housed. They also are in need of warm clothing and their food consists solely of bread and water.

MAYOR LUNN WILL SUPPORT WILSON

Democrats Announce Long List of Speakers to Tour Maine.

Democrats about the national headquarters here, who have been much cast down since Raymond Robins, the Chicago Progressive, turned up in the Republican corral when they had a place all fixed up for him on the Wilson campaign committee, brightened up a bit vesterday when Mayor George R. Lunn of Syracuse dropped in on them.

Mayor Lung, who was twice elected as a Socialise, brought the cheering news were not listened to when they tried to convince the Murphy leaders that Presiden Wilson did not intend a deliberate slight on the organization forces in this State by his failure to put a single organization Democrat on the campaign committee.

a Socialist, brought the cheering have that he was for Wilson and approved of that he was for Wilson and approved of all the Wilson policies. Furthermore, he said, he could not understand why his said friend Robins had taken a stand on the side of the reactionary G. O. P.

Mayor Lunn said he had been talking committee. over the situation with Mr. Robins on a few weeks ago. "I have made speeches with him before labor bodies," he said, "and I cannot understand how a man of and I cannot understand he is views can support Mr. Hughes. It is no secret that the Administration leaders are viewing the progress of Mr. Hughes with some alarm, not unmixed with indignation, and the demand for some one to take up the mand for some one to take up the redugels against him has been growing. The President evidently has decided to make the same kind of appeal as the Republican candidate and the political residue to the progress of the Colonel as a speaker of the Maine campaign was given out yesterday at national head-town of government. This pledge it has wantonly violated. It has increased the number of offices and lower the cost of government. It imposed upon the taxpayers an unnecessary direct tax of $20,500,000. FOR GARBAGE PLANT

Builders Plan to Begin Work Monday.

Confronted by a writ of mandamus issued by Justice Crane of the Supreme In his keynote speech, which was de-livered at the evening session, Mr. Fitz- uty Building Commissioner in Richmond

Gaffney, Gahagen & Van Etten, the Republican candidate for President opposed this when Governor.

"Under the authority conferred by that amendment the Democratic Congress levied the present income tax, which has yielded during the thirty-two months in which it has been in operation more than $137,000,000.

"We reduced the tariff. Both the greaf relities parties promised to do so. The political parties promised to do so. The Republican party, however, betrayed its trust, violated its pledge and actually increased many rates in the odious Payne-Aldrich act. The Underwood tariff law which should convince any one the presistant house the proposed plant will be of frequently be act.
